Weiher named as Outstanding Nursing Division Graduate

(Press Release 05-06-11)

Jewel Weiher, left, from Stuart was presented the Outstanding Division of Nursing Graduate Award by Nursing Division Dean Betty Wharton during commencement exercises Friday (May 6) on the Wilburton campus of Eastern Oklahoma State College. One graduate from each of the six divisions of the college is selected each year for the honor.

During commencement, five other students were also named as Outstanding Divisional Graduates including: Jared Bills, Wilburton, Division of Language and Education; Candace Ray, Hartshorne, Division of Science and Mathematics; Leslie E. Sandefur, Hartshorne, Division of Social Science and Music; Paige Priest, LaPorte, TX, Division of Business and Kristen Hedge, Rattan, Division of Agriculture.

She is a member of Pi Theta Kappa and Who's Who of Student Nursing. She has been employed at McAlester Regional Hospital as a nurse extern during nursing school and served as Vice-President of the Student Nurses Association on campus. She plans to attend Northeastern Oklahoma State University in the fall to further her nursing education. She has a husband, Kent, and a daughter, Sage.

“Jewel is ambitious and a born leader; quietly assuming duties to support her class and her peers,” Wharton said. She has a bright future and will be an asset to her chosen profession.”
